

Commitment to Standards in Fundraising Practice

Gael Linn, as a registered Irish charity, undertakes the practice of fundraising. We are fully committed to achieving the standards contained within the Statement of Guiding Principles for Fundraising. We have considered the Statement and we believe we meet the standards it sets out.

We commit to doing this by:

- Ensuring that all persons involved with fundraising do so to the highest standards of accountability, openness and maintain good fundraising practice.
- Guaranteeing that all funds raised from supporters are fully, accurately and promptly recorded in the organisations financial records.
- Providing high levels of accountability and transparency to our supporters and members of the public.
- Providing clarity and assurances to you about how we spend your money.

We are fully committed to achieving and maintaining the standards contained within the Statement of Guiding Principles for Fundraising developed by the Irish Charities Tax Reform Group (ICTR).
